In Just Five...Sweet Treat and Safety Tips

Caryn Jung, MS
Senior Coordinator

A fall tradition for many families is trick or treating. October 31st may be recognized in several ways - as an observed holiday, a social occasion with food, entertainment and dress up, or a time for costumed children to make neighborhood visits. For the 31st, here is a sampling of safety tips to consider as parents and guardians of children, and (as is popularly referenced) "pet parents!"

- Halloween Safety from the American Academy of Pediatrics (AAP) (English and Spanish versions available)
- Halloween Safety Tips from AAP and Healthy Children.org
- Halloween Safety from the Home Safety Council (HSC)
- Halloween Health and Safety Tips from the Centers for Disease Control (CDC), Department of Health and Human Services (English and Spanish versions available)
- Halloween Pet Safety from the American Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals (ASPCA)
